Message from the Chair

We need to be bold; we need to roll up our sleeves. We need to get to work. For far too long we have not been as active as we should be. It is time for a change; it is time for a strategic plan. We are on a mission to change the direction of this state but we need you to join us in this endeavor.

Traci Hensley, Chair

Shake Up in the Oregon House

Our State Representative Christine Drazan was chosen by her colleagues to be the next Republican Leader in the Oregon House. We look forward to working with her to make sure all of our voices are heard in Salem.

Congratulations Representative Drazan

Recall Petition Update

This is a last call for any outstanding recall petitions. They must be turned in now so they can be verified and counted. Please send to Oregon Republican Party office at 752 Hawthorne NE, Salem, OR 97301. Please do not hold on to them any longer. We do not want your hard work to be in vain. It takes time to process the petitions and we are doing the final push.

.Eric Hofeld – Thank you

For those who have not heard our Treasurer Eric Hofeld is stepping down to move to Eagle Crest in Central Oregon.

Eric has been a mentor, a friend, a fantastic representative of the Clackamas County Republican Party and other various boards that he has volunteered for.

We owe him so much for always speaking the truth and asking the hard questions.

He will be greatly missed but we wanted to extend our sincere thanks for all he has done to make us a better county and better party.
